Huge German Army In Caucasus May Be Cut Off

Bulk Of Danish Fleet Scuttled To Foil Germans

Report Some Of Danish Cabinet Members Escape Nazis—King Christian Held

REPORT SOME OF SHIPS ESCAPE BULLETIN

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 30.—Bloody clashes between Danish and German troops at the guards barracks in Rosenborg were reported today in the wake of Denmark's defection from the Axis, scuttling of the major part of the Danish fleet and subsequent internment of King Christian X at Sorgenfri castle outside Copenhagen.

An official statement issued by the Danish legation in Stockholm reported the fighting and confirmed destruction of the fleet the moment Germany declared martial law over Denmark in an effort to subdue a rising tide of discontent.

STOCKHOLM, Aug. 30.—Reports were current today that a free Danish government in exile may be formed by cabinet members said to have escaped the Nazi-dominated country aboard warships and merchantmen that reached Sweden after the bulk of the Danish fleet was scuttled.

The 72-year-old King Christian X remained in the grasp of the Nazis, however. Refugees reported he was under strong guard in the royal palace at Sorgenfri, ten miles north of Copenhagen.

At least 45 of Denmark's 67 fleet units were reported to be lying scorched or sunk in Copenhagen harbor after the heroic Danish seamen, emulating French patriots at Toulon, destroyed their proud little fleet to keep it out of Nazi hands.

Minor traffic tangle was noted on Wallace avenue on Sunday afternoon when two autos came together. Damage done was minor.

Shoot Down 14 Jap Planes For Every One Lost By Yanks

(International News Service)
GUADALCANAL, Aug. 27.—(Delayed)—United States airmen have shot down 14 Jap planes for every American aircraft lost in the Solomons during the last 30 days, Maj. Gen. Nate Twining, Charlotte, N. C., Solomons commander, said today.

"The Jap air force is weakening daily. Our fighters bagged 100 Zeros, 16 dive bombers, 1 medium bomber, and 15 float planes.
"Our night fighters got 36 Zeros.

"Anti-aircraft fire got 1 Zero, 13 dive bombers, 6 medium bombers, and 1 float plane.
"This is the score for the last 30 days.

"In addition to the planes shot down, our airmen also sank 30 barges, each capable of carrying a day's food for 6,000 men. The loss of these barges means that the Japs on Kolombangara will surely die if they are not evacuated.
"The Japs apparently are able to replace their lost Zeros, but they are showing a large decline in the number of medium and dive bombers in operation. Shortage of airpower eventually will drive the Japs from all extended bases because they will not be able to keep supply lines open. One day not too distant this Jap shortage will bring us to Tokyo."

King-Breaker May Be Title Given Hitler

Hitler's Lust For Power Brings Disaster To Many Crowned Heads

(International News Service)
Adolf Hitler's lust for world power has resulted in disaster for most of the crowned heads of Europe. Some day he may become known as the "king-breaker," as well as the man who destroyed modern Germany.

King Christian X of Denmark, reported under arrest in a castle near Copenhagen, is the latest to fall. Other heads included:
King Boris of Bulgaria, who died suddenly last Saturday of a reported heart ailment, but more likely as the result of assassination following a conference with Hitler.
King Carol of Rumania, who abdicated in favor of Crown Prince Michael.
King Leopold III of Belgium, now a prisoner of the Nazis.
Queen Wilhelmina of the Netherlands.

King Haakon VII of Norway.
King Peter II of Yugoslavia.
King George II of Greece.
Charlotte, grand duchess of Luxembourg.
Hanging on grimly, "by the skin of his teeth," so to speak, is King Vittorio Emanuele III of Italy, while in a similar precarious position is King Gustav V of Sweden. Of all the deposed monarchs only

Italian Railways Being Paralyzed By Bomb Attacks

Allied Air Offensive On Italy Continues Without Any Respite

NON-STOP POUNDING FOR TOE OF ITALY

By PIERRE J. HUSS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)
ALLIED HEADQUARTERS IN NORTH AFRICA, Aug. 30.—The allied air offensive to paralyze Italian railways was maintained without interruption yesterday. Flying Fortresses and Marauder bombers concentrating on the Rome-Florence line and the Naples network, allied headquarters announced today.

Giving the Axis no opportunity to repair damage inflicted on Italy's lifelines in previous devastating air blows, the American bombers battered rail installations over a wide area despite stiff enemy fighter opposition.

Trounce Nazi Fliers

Once again the allies severely trounced the German air force, shooting 17 enemy fighters out of the Italian skies, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower's headquarters announced.

Flying at high altitude, the Fortresses for the first time bombed the railroad center at Orte, 40 miles north of Rome, dealing a crippling blow at the express route north from the capital to Florence. Escorted Lightning kept off a force of about 20 enemy fighters that attempted to intercept the raiders, shooting down one of the attackers.

South of Mt. Vesuvius, swarms of Marauder bombers blanketed the railway freight yards at Torre and Anagnina with tons of bombs and incendiaries.

Demonstrations In Bulgaria

Nation Seethes With Anti-Nazi Sentiment Following King's Death

LARGE CROWDS SURGE STREETS

(International News Service)
LONDON, Aug. 30.—Bulgaria seethed with anti-Nazi sentiment today after workers throughout the Axis satellite nation were reported to have called a general strike.

Demonstrations stormed through the streets of Sofia, spearheaded by a popular uprising that reportedly threatened to overthrow the tottering pro-Nazi government in the wake of the mysterious death of King Boris III Saturday.

Communications Cut
All communications between Bulgaria and the outside world was cut off. But reports filtering out of the country indicated unrest continues unabated, with the populace demanding severance of all Bulgarian ties with Nazi Germany and the overthrow of the government led by Premier Dr. Bogdan Philoff.

The London Daily Express said large crowds surged through the capital's streets yesterday, shouting demands for Bulgaria's withdrawal from the war, and barricades were erected in streets leading to the royal palace where the six-year-old son of Boris, King Simeon II, was enthroned.

Mourning For Boris
The London radio said 40 days of mourning for Boris had been decreed throughout the country, and the funeral for the dead monarch was for Sept. 5. BBC also said the Bulgarian army and entire Bulgarian youth organization were re-

MAJOR ALLIED MOVE IN PACIFIC EXPECTED SOON

Patterson And Knudsen Are In Australia After Tour Of New Guinea Front

(International News Service)
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—A major Allied move in the Pacific can be expected soon, Under-secretary of War Robert P. Patterson announced as he and Lieut. Gen. William S. Knudsen returned to Australia after a tour of the New Guinea front.

Ask if a big push in the Pacific was imminent, Patterson replied: "You can depend on it."

His arrival in Sydney was announced by the Melbourne radio which, in a broadcast reported to OWI, quoted Patterson as saying that while the terrain in the Buna region of New Guinea was the toughest he had ever seen, everything he witnessed on the "four was most encouraging."

"There is an assurance of steady progress toward victory," he added. "We in America view this as one war against the German and the Japanese. It is like two pockets of resistance, one in the Pacific and one in Europe. The United Nations can be depended upon to clear them up in the shortest possible time."

DRIVING BAN TO BE LIFTED

OPA Officials Admit Action Coming Wednesday; No More Gas Though

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Officials at OPA headquarters in Washington today confirmed reports from the field that the east coast pleasure driving ban will be lifted Wednesday.

An official announcement on the action was expected as soon as an order can be filed with the federal register here.

Washington OPA representatives made their disclosure after numerous field officials of the agency had made public the receipt of instructions to lift the ban on Sept. 1.

The latest OPA disclosure came on the heels of a speech by Richard C. Harrison, chief of the rationing section, who intimated that it may take "weeks or months" before the A rations could be increased.

See Congress Battles On Gas Rationing; Fathers' Draft; Taxes

By ROBERT HUMPHREYS
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Members who have returned to Washington since congress adjourned "to go home and find out what the people are thinking" are uniformly predicting major battles in the coming weeks on gasoline rationing, draft of fathers and taxes.

With congress scheduled to reconvene two weeks from today indications are plain that the draft of fathers will be the first matter on the legislative calendar and will present the biggest issue.

Much Agitation
Members from the middle west report considerable agitation over the cut in gasoline rations while those from the eastern seaboard claim there is widespread dissatisfaction over the failure to lift the pleasure drive ban promptly, which was supposed to follow the slash in mid-western allowances.

On the question of taxes, congressmen say they have found the public generally bewildered over the change to the "pay-as-you-go" system, and apprehensive at the prospect of additional taxes slated to be voted later this year.

May Halt Draft

Members whose judgment is considered representative offer this summary: There is some likelihood that congress will halt the draft of fathers unless the war department outlines an excellent case; the administration may not get as much as half of the $12,000,000,000 it is seeking in additional taxes; any attempts to upset the gas rationing program will fail.

REPORT COUNT CIANO ESCAPES

Axis Propaganda Says Count Is Now In Munich After Fleeing Rome

(International News Service)
LONDON, Aug. 30.—Count Galeazzo Ciano—Benito Mussolini's son-in-law, one-time Italian foreign minister, envoy to the Holy See and playboy of Europe's social set—today was reported to be in Munich after fleeing his police-guarded home in Rome.

His wife, Edda, and their three children also escaped from Rome, the German radio announced. A later broadcast by the Clandestine German radio "Atlantik" said Ciano motored from Innsbruck, Austria, to Munich, and added that Edda and the three children "also disappeared."

German dispatches from Rome previously said Ciano, cleverly disguised, eluded formal arrest in the nick of time by fleeing his palatial villa in Rome's Parioli district.

The German radio said the absence of Ciano had been discovered at 11 a. m. Saturday. Eight detectives had been posted at the house by Premier Marshal Badoglio since July 26, just after Mussolini's "resignation," said Berlin.

Apparently learning he was about to be thrown into jail, Ciano eluded his guards some time Friday night, said Berlin. In London, some quarters speculated that German sources may have smuggled disguises into the house and arranged the family's flight to Germany.

SWEDEN REJECTS NAZI ANSWER

(International News Service)
STOCKHOLM, Aug. 30.—Sweden today brusquely rejected Germany's negative answer to her sharp protest over the sinking of two Swedish fishing boats by German warships in the Skagerrak.

The Swedish government refused to accept Nazi claims that the sunken vessels had forfeited their own neutrality by entering "international waters."

"Editor's Note: A British broadcast heard by CBS reported that Sweden may retaliate to the sinkings by banning Swedish territorial waters to the Germans."

Anti-Nazi sentiment in Sweden, aroused by German injustice in Norway and Denmark, has greatly increased.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill today were preparing to resume their war conferences in Washington after issuing a new, uncompromising warning to Germany that Nazi murderers of Polish civilians will pay for their crimes.

The two Democratic leaders will continue their Quebec war strategy talks here against the backdrop of sensational new outbreaks of unrest in Nazi-occupied and dominated Europe.

Mystery Developments

The revolt of the hitherto peaceful Danes against their Nazi masters and the mysterious death of King Boris of Bulgaria provided evidence over the week-end of the gradually tottering structure of Nazidom.

These encouraging signs of developing weakness on the northwestern and southeastern frontiers of "fortress Europe" are considered certain to come under the view of the chief executive and prime minister in their Washington discussions in the light of coming Anglo-American assaults on the continent.

Number one on their schedule, however, is expected to be consideration of the possibility of a tri-

MURDER THEORY HELD IN DEATH OF WACS CORPORAL

(International News Service)
INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 30.—Military authorities today swung to a theory of murder in the mysterious death of Maoma L. Ridings, 32, a corporal in the WACS and member of a prominent Georgia family, who was found dead in her room in an Indianapolis hotel.

A shattered whiskey bottle was found in pieces about the floor and the young woman's wrists and hands were cut as if she had raised her hands in defense as an assailant rained blows with the bottle on her head. He head and throat also were cut.

Authorities were completely in the dark as to whether the slayer was a man or a woman. The only clue to this was the report of a bell-boy that he had seen a "woman with black hair" in Corp. Ridings' room.

The victim's former husband, Lawrence Ridings, was reported in the army overseas.

Liquor Black Market Target

O. P. A. Institutes New Rigid Liquor Price Ceilings In 65,000 Stores

(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—OPA went to bat today against the bootlegging leftovers of the prohibition era with the institution of new rigid liquor price ceilings in some 65,000 retail stores throughout the country.

Striving to smash the high-cost liquor black markets by the simple device of making it cheaper for consumers to do business legally, the OPA said of its new venture:

"The general tendency will be to effect tremendous savings for the consumer as long as he sticks to the legitimate trade. If he persists in patronizing the black market he won't fare so well."

For the first time, consumers will have a chance to do a bit of "poling" on their own in regard to liquor prices since the new OPA regulations give retailers a fixed markup of 33 1/2 per cent over net cost on distilled spirits, 50 per cent on wine and 45 per cent for cordials, liquors and specialties.

Residents in areas which operate state-owned stores will notice little change in current liquor prices, the OPA said. State-owned stores generally have avoided the wartime boom in liquor prices, adhering closely to the margins established by their respective legislatures or liquor control boards.

ANOTHER ISLAND TAKEN BY YANKS

and Australian jungle troops forced the Allies to give ground slightly, a communique revealed.

Twin-motored Allied attack bombers meanwhile returned to the Japs' Hansa bay base on the northeastern coast of New Guinea for another rippling assault that resulted in the destruction of a 2,000-ton vessel, a patrol boat and 31 barges and luggers. Huge fires sent columns of smoke rising 14,000 feet in the air visible for 60 miles after direct hits were scored in fuel and ammunition dumps.

No Planes Seek To Intercept

Nearly Japanese troop and anti-aircraft positions were heavily attacked, said the communique, revealing that no enemy planes attempted to intercept the raiders—testifying to the effectiveness of Thursday's record raid that virtually devastated Hansa Bay's air base. One Allied plane was shot down by anti-aircraft fire.

Allied four-motored bombers meanwhile smashed at the Voco point waterfront area near Lae, north of Salamaua. Raining 29 tons of bombs on the harbor installations, the huge bombers touched off violent explosions and extensive fires and smashed three jetties and 20 Jap barges. No enemy fighter opposition was encountered in this raid, either.

Other Allied bombers of all sizes ranged over the southwest Pacific and Solomon areas from Timor in the west to Kolombangara in the east. A particularly heavy night raid on Timor, coming in the wake of several smaller assaults on widely-separated island bases, ignited a spreading fire in the town of Dilli visible for 45 miles.

The occupation of Arundel, a tiny island near Allied-occupied New Georgia and off the coast of Jap-held Kolombangara, climaxed the cleansing of the Solomon south of Kolombangara of all Japanese troops and foreshadowed an imminent Allied thrust against the Japs' Vila air base.

BULK OF DANISH FLEET SCUTTLED TO FOIL GERMAN

South Swedish ports of Malmö and Landskrona, bringing hundreds of refugees from Nazi aggression.

One refugee said the 3,800-ton Danish artillery ship, Niels Iuel, was bombed by German planes while trying to leave Copenhagen harbor. It was not known whether the ship, Denmark's largest, listed war vessel corresponding to ships of destroyer size, was sunk or whether it escaped the Nazi-held port.

A Nazi U-boat was said to have fired on some of the Danish ships crossing to Sweden and Swedish anti-aircraft batteries twice drove off German planes over Swedish territory, apparently patrolling the Kattegat in search of refugee vessels.

Danish naval officers were quoted in a Stockholm dispatch to Reuters as reporting that the Niels Iuel was forced to put in at Helsinki, capital of Finland, after it was bombed by Nazi planes. They added that Swedish anti-aircraft guns drove off German planes chasing Danish warships heading for Landskrona, Sweden.

The officers, Reuters said, revealed that among the Danish ships scuttled were the 3,500-ton Pederskrum, one of Denmark's largest warships of the same class as the Niels Iuel; two destroyers, four torpedo boats, nine submarines and "numerous" minesweepers and small craft.

German Warships Arrive

Seven German warships meanwhile cast anchor on the Danish side of the narrow Oeresund, just across from southwestern Sweden, apparently stationed there to prevent any other Danish vessels not destroyed at Copenhagen from reaching neutral Sweden.

Danish seamen opened the sea-cocks set off explosions and ignited fires aboard the ships anchored at the Copenhagen marine base while their comrades grimly resisted German troops advancing on the harbor to seize the vessels, according to refugees reaching Sweden.

King Christian's royal guardsmen meanwhile were said to be bitterly defending their Copenhagen barracks against Nazi troops who threw up a siege around the tiny Danish garrison.

Among the Danes who found sanctuary in neutral Sweden, it was reported, were members of the cabinet of Premier Eric Scavenius, whose resignation in the face of a Nazi ultimatum demanding German control over Denmark precipitated the revolt against Hitler's occupation force.

Reports from Malmö and Landskrona suggested the possibility that the escaped cabinet ministers may seek to set up a free government, possibly in London, and seek recognition from the United Nations governments.

Aged King Held

The aged King Christian, however, remained in the Nazi grip, and there was no confirmation of reports that he had abdicated. A German broadcast said no harm had befallen the monarch.

A Nazi proclamation of martial law threatening death to violators of its anti-strike and curfew regulations failed to check the spreading wave of anti-Nazi strikes and sabotage that yesterday reached the boiling point, exploding the German myth of "model and end enlightened occupation" of Denmark.

Danish workers, according to late reports reaching Stockholm, launched a general strike against the spread throughout the 16,575-square mile nation guarding the northern flank of Germany. The 50,000 Nazi troops that occupied Copenhagen a week ago were reported to have been reinforced by 3,000 more troops and tanks landed yesterday in an effort to crush the wave of opposition that reached virtual revolution proportions.

by the end of this year and that one fourth of all officers and men in the navy will be assigned to the aviation arm.

Calls For Defeat

Vice Admiral John C. McClain, new deputy chief of naval operations for air, used the anniversary to call for the utter defeat of the Axis. He said:

"Huge task forces, spearheaded by carrier-based aircraft, are poised for new pile-driver blows against the enemy. The navy has always sought to bring all its weapons to bear against an enemy simultaneously believing that such coordinated attack is the most effective. Naval aviation has become an extremely powerful weapon, possibly the most powerful."

"Let every officer and man in aviation resolve, on this anniversary of the formal beginning of this branch to continue to intensify the unremitting punishment we have given the enemy from the air, until he is utterly defeated."

Admiral McCain did not say where the new blows would fall but there have been reports in Washington for days that the navy was preparing for major thrusts against Japan.

The government wants men who can speak many languages. Why bother? The enemy understands only one. It is called force.

WARN GERMANY NAZI MURDERERS TO FACE JUSTICE

partite conference with Soviet Russia for agreements on the conduct of the war by all three nations, and the peace settlements that must be made later.

Whether a meeting between Roosevelt, Churchill and Stalin could be possible in view of Russia's non-aggression pact with Japan must be determined.

Plan To Try War Guilty

Meanwhile, the two governments pushed plans for the establishment of an international court of justice in London to prepare for the war guilt trials of Axis war criminals. The court will be composed of representatives of all the United Nations.

The American and British governments last night formally accused Hitler Germany of wholesale extermination of the Polish population.

In a formal "declaration on German crimes in Poland," the state department asserted:

"Trustworthy information has reached the United States government regarding crimes committed by the German invaders against the population of Poland."

"Since the autumn of 1942 a belt of territory extending from the province of Bialystok southwards along the line of the river Bug has been systematically emptied of its inhabitants."

"In July 1943 these measures were extended to practically the whole of the province of Lublin, where hundreds of thousands of persons have been deported from their homes or exterminated."

"These measures are being carried out with the utmost brutality. Many of the victims are killed on the spot. The rest are segregated. Men from 14 to fifty are taken away to work in Germany. Some children are killed on the spot, others are separated from their parents and either sent to Germany to be brought up as Germans or sold to German settlers or despatched to concentration camps."

"The United States government reaffirms its resolve to punish the instigators and actual perpetrators of these crimes."

"It further declares that, so long as such atrocities continue to be committed by the representatives and in the name of Germany, they must be taken into account against the time of the final settlement with Germany."

Meanwhile, the war against Germany will be prosecuted with the utmost vigor until the barbarous Hitlerite tyranny has been finally overthrown."

a few seem likely to regain their thrones. Queen Wilhelmina, King Christian and King Leopold probably head the list because all are beloved by their people. Their heads are unbowed. Leopold, maligned at first for giving way to the Germans, appears to be gaining in favor because now it appears there was nothing else he could do. King Christian opposed the Nazis to the end. Queen Wilhelmina undoubtedly is "first in the hearts of her people."

King Carol of Rumania, now a refugee in Mexico, definitely is out and the ultimate fate of his son remains in doubt. King Peter of Yugoslavia reigned but a short time. The new king of Bulgaria, Simeon II, is only six years old. The political future of Norway likewise is somewhat in doubt, although King Haakon heads the Norwegian refugee government in London and may some day be welcomed back to Oslo.

A corn and wiener roast was held later in the evening, and a tasty menu was served on a nicely arranged table. Assisting in serving was Mrs. Sally Newman.

During the evening a special feature was the writing of a letter to First Sergeant Jack Lawton, who is stationed in Mobile, Ala.

The Parent Problem

By Garry C. Myers, Ph. D.

CHILDREN AID IN HOUSEWORK

To hear or read of a child from 6 to 16 helping freely about the home is aimed as unusual as to read of a man hitting a dog. Now and then I do get such news items in letters from parents.

From the Mid-west came this: "Our little girl aged 9 is very helpful. She makes her bed, cleans her room and runs many errands for us. She will also help in many ways without being asked. She has formed the good habit of saving her money from the small regular amounts we give her. She buys War Savings Stamps with most of it. On Mother's Day she bought me a picture with a nice verse on it from the money she had saved. It cost a little more than she had saved so her Daddy helped her out."

The next item is from the East coast, about a large young family with limited income. "Since I have been pregnant this time, I have had trouble with varicose veins and have not been able to stand up much. All the children from thirteen-year-old Emma down to 2½-year-old Jean wait on me and do my work for me."

All The Children Help

"When I want to bake a cake, Jean and 4-year-old Billy get me my ingredients while I sit at the table. Then Emma puts the cake in the oven and takes it out when done. Meanwhile young Garfield, 8, washes the dishes and Mary Lou, 6, wipes them. I am constantly surprised to see all a mere baby like Jean can do. I'll give her a pan of feed for the mother hen and her chicks and she feeds them and laughs to see them eat."

In another letter this same mother writes of her boy of eight. "When he was in Philadelphia I sent him a dollar each Friday for spending money so he could go to all the movies he cared to because out here in the country they don't go very often."

Small Boy's Generosity

"When he came in and unpacked his suitcase he started handing out gifts for all of us. Out of his first dollar he'd bought his dad an 89c wallet and gave me a 10c pair of plastic earrings (something I never wear but I put them on to please him). Out of his second dollar he got me a 39c box of lovely hankies and a 25c novelty eagle pin. He got Emma a jump rope with wooden handles and knowing Mary Lou wanted a game of Jacks he visited at dozen 5 and 10 cent stores until at long last he found some still in stock. He got the puppy a collar and lead. He said he was awfully sorry he couldn't get Billy and Jean a gift but he ran out of cash."

I was so touched by his generosity I almost cried. Oh, yes, he also got it unbought by a card of safety pins. I couldn't find any in our town."

Such items as the foregoing I read with a vast deal of satisfaction. I hope you do and that many a reader is able to match these items with similar ones.

HOME ON LEAVE

There's a twinkle in her eye
Haven't seen for quite a while.
Even strangers passing by
Catch the beauty of her smile.
What's the reason? I believe
It's because he's home on leave.

I've been whistling 'round the place
Times I fancied I'd forgot.
There's a grin upon my face.
Now my troubles matter not.
Ask me why? I'll not deceive.
It's because he's home on leave.

Janet hums a bit of song;
Dances lightly to and fro;
All is right she fancied wrong
Just a day or two ago.
Why has Janet ceased to grieve?
It's because he's home on leave.

Now the laughter's as of old!
Now the table's gay once more!
Now the jokes are being told!
Home is as it was before.
Happiness we now retrieve.
Just because he's home on leave.

Answer: Even though your mother has died only recently, you may, with propriety, have a quiet "wedding" dressing as a bride, as you suggest. And you may, too, take your friends to dinner following the ceremony. It is only a formal wedding, followed by a gay reception or breakfast that is frowned upon in such circumstances.

DAUGHTER WHO WON'T GO HOME TO MOTHER

"After one year of marriage, my daughter's husband has gone to war. She rented their house, got herself a job and now lives alone in a small apartment. Don't you think she is being insulting to her father and me? We have a large and beautiful home where she could live without paying any board. She is twenty-five years old. Can you understand this psychology?"—Mother.

Answer: This is one of the many problems brought about by the war. I am in sympathy with your viewpoint but I must side with your daughter. After a year of "being on her own" it is extremely difficult for a girl to return to parental guidance. It is every girl's ambition to have her own home where she can rearrange the furniture to suit herself—entertain her friends when and how she pleases—go in and out without giving a full report of her activities, regardless of how innocent they might be. When a girl of mature age has had this freedom and independence, she loathes giving it up. Perhaps your daughter feels that the lack of a home of her own—be it only an apartment—might depress her and that the continuance of it gives her the illusion of happiness during this lonely period. Nothing could be better for her mentally than work. Encourage her to keep busy, thus preventing neurosis and melancholia.

Of course, if you needed her financial help, she should live with you and share your expenses. But since you have so much difficulty, why not look with amusement at her independent spirit?

SUCH LONG LINES

Over in Italy, where there is a scarcity of food, a woman had stood in line at several places before she could get even spaghetti. Her husband complained because there wasn't more food to go to shoot Mussolini, and went away on the mission. Several hours later the man returned home, more disgusted than ever.

"Did you shoot Mussolini?" the wife asked.

"No," answered her husband with a sigh. "I stood in line for several hours and there was a long line of people ahead of me, and I gave up."

"Thanks," said Mr. Brown.

Inside Washington

Big New Offensives Looked For Soon
Japan Scheduled For Heaviest Blows
Yes, We're Getting More Bananas Now

By HELEN ESSARY

(Central Press Columnist)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—President Roosevelt is expected today to follow through his historic Quebec conference with Prime Minister Winston Churchill by making a fire-side chat.

Actually, according to word in Washington, the President planned to make the address weeks ago, but the Quebec meeting was scheduled suddenly and the President sent War Mobilization Director James F. Byrnes, so-called "president of the home front," to the microphones to substitute.

It is likely that major new offensives may be under way in both Europe and in the Pacific by the time the President speaks. Japan probably will get its heaviest blows when the North American winter sets in—both from Burma and from the central Pacific.

More and more emphasis is being placed on the war against Japan; not that the American high command did not want to get in and slug as soon as war broke out, but shipping was lacking. This is significant: Figures for August will show that America produced nearly 250,000 tons of combat ships. High-speed monthly tonnage since Pearl Harbor, it is equivalent to one-fourth of all out combatant naval strength at the time war broke out.

U. S. admirals returning from Pacific war fronts to the capital estimate that Japan's first-line aircraft carrier strength is equal to that of the United States. However, the Japanese fleet is refusing to come out and fight and U. S. task forces may have to thrust deeply into the central Pacific to force a battle.

Canada, according to military attaches returning to Washington, is anxious to get into the battle of the Pacific on a large scale. That was the story behind the Navy communiqué that Canadian and American troops had recaptured Kiska without opposition. It was the first time that Canadian troops were used as part of a task force in the Pacific and the American Navy was careful to give the Canadians credit. Canada, like her sister dominion of Australia, recognizes the Japs as a distinct threat. It saw Jap occupation of the Aleutians as a dagger aimed at its northern provinces.

Behind the departure of Nicholas Roosevelt from the Office of War Information lies the feud between the OWI and the armed services. The OWI was only a few days old when it clashed with the Army over the way publicity was to be handled at the military trial of eight German saboteurs last July. From then on it was an almost constant fight. Roosevelt, a second cousin of "T. R.", and a distant relative of "F. D. R.", was brought in as liaison officer between the OWI and the Army and Navy, stayed nine months, decided it was futile, resigned.

Elmer Davis' propaganda agency fights for more war news, steadily against a habit of the armed forces to hide war developments under the guise of "military security."

Classic example: OWI compiled a list of German cities, showing the industrial facilities and the importance of each. The Army balked, saying that it would not do to let the Germans know that we possessed such information. OWI finally succeeded in having the data released on condition that it would never be printed in full at one time, used only in bits as background when a particular German city was bombed. Fact is that most of the information came from records and books available at any public library. And a former American commercial attaché in Berlin has written a book containing virtually the same information.

More chocolate, more bananas and more tapioca are coming into the United States because of the same improvement in shipping which led to the elimination of cotton from the ration list. The public can expect more chocolate bars, breakfast cocoa, chocolate milk shakes, etc., more bananas, too. But increase in tapioca imports will first benefit the adhesive industry where tapioca is vitally needed, practically irreplaceable for stickum. Abundant tapioca for pudding will not be available for some time.

When will the war be over? Will we invade France? Will Russia make a separate peace? Will we lick Japan next year?

"What did you say?" asks my wife. "I'm rather busy reading an important story."

"Sharply contrasting with the severity of this silhouette was the simplicity of the baby or young babe hats, which snugly fitted the back of the head and swept up and off the face," she read, completely oblivious of the fact that the Red army had captured another fifty populated villages.

And after all, isn't it a good thing that there is more than destruction, calamity and weeping in the world? Isn't it well that the dear ladies, who do so much to help win the war, haven't lost their interest in fine feathers, gaudy ribbons and everything that is crazy, exotic, completely senseless—and yet so pretty and enticing?

Over in France and Germany and Hungary and Greece, the women wear ugly, bag-like, unbecoming garb. They have lost their interest in life.

But over here in America it isn't necessary to watch the papers to see how the war is going.

Watch the women: As long as you see silk hose or bare, painted legs; as long as you see cuckoo hairdos, bright red finger and toe nails, and that fascinating sparkle of proud vanity in their eyes.

As long as you see that, we are winning the war!

The World and the Mud Puddles

THE "BLOOD BANK"

This campaign for plasma inaugurated by the Red Cross is a very curious affair. All civilians outside of the armed forces are called upon to give some of their blood.

The civilian is not the natural reservoir from which to obtain blood. Take the New Dealers, for instance. Their blood, I think would not mean much if manufactured into plasma. Perhaps Harold Ickes' blood would be all right. He seems to be an athletic sort of a chap, but most of the New Dealers are rather sedentary—they sit around in their offices figuring out how many monkey wrenches they can throw into the governmental machinery, but do not exert themselves, physically, in bare circulation.

The solicitors for this plasma visit offices where are located business and professional men, asking them to contribute from their blood stream and these men, as a rule are not noted for their red blood corpuscles. Of course, there are active working men in the munition plants who have good red blood, but the best sources from which the Red Cross could gather plasma is from the armed forces themselves.

Men taken into the Navy, the Army, the Marine Corps and the Air Forces are being trained athletically every day. They have to be in very fine physical condition to be accepted in the first place, and after acceptance they are not only kept in good condition but the physical condition becomes better. There are Doctors galore and a great string of hospitals inside and outside of the Camps and on board ships and in every locality where our armed forces are in training designed to keep the men in very fine physical condition. Enough plasma ought to be obtained from these men to take care of the whole situation.

One rather anemic lawyer was solicited the other day and he immediately said, "What the heck? I need plasma for myself. I have no blood that would be of any benefit to anyone else but myself and I have not much."

More power to the Blood Bank, however, but really the Red Cross must have some method of purifying the material gathered for this Bank. If the plasma thereby manufactured is going to make well the wounded and sick soldiers and sailors.

Looking At Life

By ERICH BRANDEIS

As you probably know by this time the war is going on.

The world is in a turmoil, cannons roaring, flying fortresses are pouring fiery bombs of destruction on the earth.

But what does it matter?

"Sky-scraping crowns with small narrow brims were featured prominently in the millinery collection shown yesterday," my morning paper tells me.

There was no butter for breakfast, I'm out of gas coupons, I can't get even an upper berth for a necessary business trip.

Who cares?

"Brilliant colorings of apricot turquoise and red in feather trims relieved the severity of many of the tailored-suit hats, while others depended on twisted crowns or an occasional bow of velvet or bengaline for their femininity," continues the newspaper story with its two-column head.

When will the war be over? Will we invade France? Will Russia make a separate peace? Will we lick Japan next year?

"What did you say?" asks my wife. "I'm rather busy reading an important story."

"Sharply contrasting with the severity of this silhouette was the simplicity of the baby or young babe hats, which snugly fitted the back of the head and swept up and off the face," she read, completely oblivious of the fact that the Red army had captured another fifty populated villages.

POSTWAR POPULATION SHIFT

A SUBJECT of interesting speculation at the moment is the postwar shift of population within the United States. Notable population movements have followed every major war.

Already California, indulging in official estimates, anticipates a population of 10,000,000 people in 1950. It is an entirely reasonable assumption that the entire Pacific Coast will register a heavy growth. Another plausible assumption is that there will be a new flood of immigration into the vast prairie domain that stretches from Canada to the Gulf. Availability of this area for full development may prove to be an irresistible invitation to Americans seeking postwar relocations.

Soon after the Republic was founded the population began rearranging itself with ardor and industry. The adventure over the Alleghenies into the Mississippi Valley set in. The folk on the Pennsylvania frontier north and south of Pittsburgh, numbering approximately 70,000 in 1790, contributed strikingly to the settlement of Ohio.

Every sort of inducement was offered the migratory tendency. When Ohio was admitted as a state in 1802 it exempted all land centers from taxes for the first four years. Congress supplemented this generosity by making education free in Ohio through the township allotment for educational purposes, a gift later extended to all new states.

This thrust of population into newer regions was beset by difficulties. At the beginning of the last century the settlements west of the Alleghenies were up against a variety of distractions. Kentuckians were blocked in a market outlet for their tobacco by a Spanish governor at New Orleans. Through the South an equally busy Frenchmen, Genet, a Jacobin sent here by revolutionary France, was spreading poison and up North Lord Dorchester in charge of Canada was encouraging the Indians to resist the new settlements in the United States, occasionally assisting them with armed men.

But despite all this outside interference the occupation of the new country continued apace. Its success was sometimes ascribed to the steamboat. There is nothing to indicate that the march of population westward would not have persisted without that innovation. But it did enliven the pioneer picture and steam navigation became the sensation of the hour. It reached a peak in the era subsequent to the acquisition of Louisiana. That addition to the area of the Republic exerted strong influence in keeping Americans going west.

Later the railroad was to play a prominent part in the complete settlement of the Far West. But the pioneers did not wait for the railroad. They pushed on through the plains and mountains in wagons to the Pacific Coast. The Spaniards and Mexicans had been in California sixty years in 1840, but the population never grew beyond a handful of people. By 1850 California was part of the United States, gold had been discovered, and the population stood at 92,000.

If its population totals 10,000,000 in 1950, as it probably will, it will be new proof that this country has not stopped growing.

LOOKING AHEAD

Thousands of young men who are being sent to college in uniform are evidence of this country's long term policy with regard to the war. Many of these young men are absorbing background material for technical motive combat duties. Many of them are learning various phases of engineering. Some are studying political science and languages.

In addition to these groups, there are the medical and dental reserve corps, members of which are sent through medical or dental school in uniform at government expense.

These young men are learning to be leaders—leaders steeped in the knowledge of warfare. With such a generation, this nation will not again be caught unawares. They will help to rebuild the world of tomorrow without the hesitance and inexperience of yesterday.

NAZIS NOT FEARED

Proof of how fear of the Nazis has ebbed among Germany's neighbors is supplied by statistics of trade relations between Turkey and Germany. In 1941 a strong Germany "negotiated" a contract with Turkey for 90,000 tons of chromium per year. In payment German war materials were to be delivered to Turkey.

The British and the French had contracted in advance for all Turkish chromium output for 1941 and 1942 but did not wish to buy for a longer period. The Turks informed the British of the deal in 1941 with the Nazis, explaining they could not decline in view of Hitler's strength. But the Turks did insist that Germany must deliver the war materials before receiving the chromium.

Germany has now fulfilled its obligation to Turkey, but little chromium has been shipped to the Nazis. Transportation difficulties are given as the reason. The Turks insist they will surrender the chromium to Germany on demand. But there is no way of transporting it and if the Allies invade the Balkans all transportation will be cut off.

In the meantime the Turks are giving priority to Allied shipments and ignoring Nazi threats.

If former Undersecretary of State Welles gets in touch with Moley, Farley, Edison, Woolridge, Garner and ex-Editor Stout of the Saturday Evening Post, they should be able to organize a club.

U. S. Fortresses Destroyed 307 Planes In Battle

(International News Service)
LONDON, Aug. 30.—American flying fortresses today were revealed to have established a new world's record by destroying 307 Nazi fighters in what was officially described as "the greatest daylight aerial engagement in all history."

The record bag was achieved Aug. 17, when the British-based four-engine bombers battered the German industrial cities of Regensburg and Schweinfurt.

Fifty-nine fortresses failed to return—the greatest number lost by the Allies in a single mission. Fifty-eight British bombers were lost in last Monday's saturation assault on Berlin.

The greatly outnumbered Forts, after scoring a margin of victory better than five-to-one, went on to North African bases in the first American daylight shuttle bombing assault of the war. They attacked an aircraft plant at Bordeaux, France, on the return trip.

NEW BLACKOUT ORDER IS GIVEN

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Allegheny county air raid wardens were under orders today to enforce rigidly an O.C.D. regulation forbidding the blacking out of a building by pulling the main electric switch and shutting off all current.

Ralph E. Griswold, chief air raid warden of the Allegheny county council of defense, said the O.C.D. had received numerous complaints and the council has decided to make property owners liable to prosecution if they fail to provide in the future special blackout switches in apartments and public buildings.

Cutting off the current completely in a building, Griswold explained, leaves occupants without adequate lighting facilities in case of sudden emergency.

RAILROAD SRO SIGNS EXHIBITED THESE DAYS

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30.—Railroads are hanging up standing-room-only signs these days, the Office of Defense Transportation reported tonight.

Some roads, the ODT said, require passengers for the first time to reserve coach seats, and all report crowded aisles daily.

The worst is yet to come, however. Mid-western railroads expect the reduction in gasoline rations in the Midwest and Southwest to mean additional traffic burdens for them. And ODT officials hate to think of what the Labor Day week-end will bring.

The rails already are jammed. ODT warned, and there just won't be any space to accommodate extra crowds of holiday-makers next week-end.

GOING TO SCHOOL ISN'T ALL

Reading, Writing and Arithmetic!

SCHOOL is more than learning lessons—it's learning a way of life. Yes, it's learning to get along with all sorts of people!

You can help your children in school! Help by feeding them sensibly, getting them to bed early, listening to their problems.

And, before you even send them off to school, you can help by dressing them wisely and well.

See that they get shoes that support their feet, clothes that fit, outdoor things that are warm. That's the kind we offer at Penney's!

When you outfit your boy at Penney's, he looks like the real boy he is. If you shop here for your daughter, her friends will approve her style.

Penney's knows the children in this town—knows "what they are wearing." We know how important thrift is to mothers, and we offer top values.

We know these things because we at Penney's know this town—we're part of it. Your neighbors serve you when you shop at Penney's.

Penney's is as native to this town as the name on the railroad station.

The ordnance department, army service forces, estimates that, during the first year of this war, arms, equipment, food and general supplies shipped to American troops overseas averaged 82 pounds a man a day, as compared with 43 pounds a man a day in 1918-19.

Under Age Soldier Returning Home

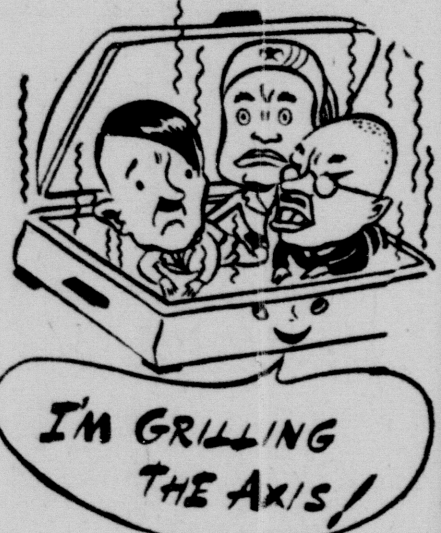

Michigan Lad In Australia And New Guinea Before He Was 17

By ART COHN
(U. S. Staff War Correspondent)
SOMEWHERE IN NEW GUINEA, Aug. 30—The one buck private in New Guinea who didn't want to go home just did. Under orders. Edwin Delaney of Sault Ste. Marie enlisted in the army May 20, 1942. He was first shipped to Fort Custer, Battle Creek. From there to Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, for eight weeks. From there to Bowman Field, Kentucky, for two months. From there to Camp Florence, South Carolina, for three months. From there to a camp in California. From there to New Zealand. From there to Australia for a spell. And from there to New Guinea last December 28. He has been here ever since. The other day orders came from Washington, D. C., to send Delaney home immediately. It seems he had no business being in the army, since he is only 17 years old. "Just a technicality," he grinned, "when I enlisted I said I was born June 29, 1923. As a matter of fact I wasn't born until 1926 but that wasn't a complete lie—my brother Floyd was born June 29, 1923. I always used to wear his clothes and borrow everything else. I didn't think anyone would mind me taking his birthday for a while." So the boy who spent fifteen months as a soldier in five American camps and three foreign countries is going back to Sault Ste. Marie to wait until he is old enough to be drafted—next June. "What do you intend doing until you're 18?" I asked. "Probably go back to my old job of driving a beer truck." "You must have started young." "Yeh, I quit school when I was 14. I put in two weeks of the first year of high school but didn't get along good with the teachers so I got a job driving a beer truck." "How do you account for the fact the army suddenly discovered you were only 15 when you enlisted?" "My old man, it's some of his work, he didn't want me to join. Mom signed the papers but after Floyd went to Africa as a gunner and my oldest brother Claude went to the hospital after the Buna campaign, I guess my old man figured mom had enough to worry about with me, too, so he turned me in." The kid honestly had no desire to return home. "It's as good here as anywhere else," he said simply.

Red Cross Home Service Performs Various Functions

Department Medium Of Communication Between Families And Service Men

Acting as a medium of communication between the people of Lawrence county and their men in the army and navy, the local Red Cross chapter is helping to solve war-created problems which inevitably arise when men are serving in distant places. Because this obligation takes the Red Cross worker into the home, it is called "home service". Last month's record of cases handled by the home service department was over 500. Here in Lawrence county the department also serves as field director for the Westminster college army unit.

While hours of the home service department at the chapter house are from 9 a. m. to 5 p. m., home service workers are on call 24 hours a day by phoning 5084 at any time.

Miss Mary B. Watson and Mrs. H. M. Bradley head the department and are assisted by a group of volunteers. In general what the home service department does is the following: (1) Assists with communications between servicemen and their families with inquiries in regard to their welfare. (2) Secures information concerning benefits, such as family allowances, insurance and pensions available through legislation to servicemen, ex-servicemen and their dependents. (3) Obtains information needed for the proper treatment of servicemen in camps and hospitals, secures reports on home conditions when emergency furloughs or discharges are considered.

(4) Aids the serviceman's family, as it does the serviceman himself, with loans or grants, as the case merits; acquaints the family with other specialized welfare facilities available to it.

In addition there is the Red Cross inquiry service through which residents here exchange messages with relatives in occupied countries, prisoners of war or interned civilians.

McQuiddy Named To Committee Post

State Senator J. K. McQuiddy has been named by the T. E. C. speaker of the house of representatives and chairman of the Joint State committee that he has been appointed a member of the Strip Coal Mining sub-committee.

The purpose of this sub-committee, which is under the chairmanship of State Senator Fred Thomas of Sharon, is to investigate the areas in which strip mining is conducted and suggest remedies that would obviate the ugly scars now seen where coal has been stripped.

The first meeting of the sub-committee is in Greensburg, September 1.

OCD NOTES

Activities of OCD Workers Are Outlined Here

Regular business meeting will be held at Post 6-2, Sampson street, Tuesday, at 7:30 p. m., after which the Bomb demonstration will be held at the corner of Sampson and Grant streets. Wards of this Post are urged to be present at this meeting because as they are needed to assist with the bomb demonstration, John Hitch, Sr., Warden, will be in charge of the meeting.

Wardens OCD class will be held Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. at Post 6-2, Sampson street, September 1. First Aid classes are being held at Post 3-6, Fern street, every Wednesday at 8 p. m. Anyone who has not finished their necessary hours of first aid, are welcome to attend this class.

It has come to the attention of this office, that quite a few wardens, Auxiliary Policemen and others in the OCD are unable to impress upon the minds of people that it is compulsory that all persons who are upon the streets during the red signal must take shelter inside, and not stand in doorways. It will assist OCD workers greatly if you will bear in mind that they are doing their duty when they ask you to please step inside. In the future all persons who refuse to obey the warden, will be ordered in before the Board, and if guilty may be punished. Be sure to pack your basket for the OCD picnic and follow the crowd. Labor Day, Coffee will be furnished by this office. Bring your own cups. Plans are under way to make this picnic a big success. We need your assistance. If you are a group leader get your workers together. One Post has reported that every member, barring illness, will attend. Have you contacted your workers?

CAN'T MAKE WASHERS, AT LEAST UNTIL '44

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 — The WPB on Saturday rejected an appeal from the washing machine industry for permission to resume limited production of washing machines prohibited since the industry was converted to war work in the spring of 1942.

For the remainder of 1943, at least, the tight material situation will not allow production of washing machines, the industry was advised. WPB officials, however, were unable to indicate whether production will be possible on a limited scale early in 1944.

Although refusing to allow new production at this time, the WPB agreed to make sufficient materials available to enable the industry to maintain a necessary output of washing machine repair parts to keep existing machines in operating condition.

ESTABLISH PRICES FOR PRUNES, RAISINS

(International News Service)

WASHINGTON, Aug. 30 — The OPA on Saturday established maximum prices for the 1943 crop of dried raisins and prunes at levels 40 per cent above 1942 ceilings in the case of raisins and 35 per cent over last year's prices on prunes.

Officials said, however, that government subsidies will prevent higher costs to the consumer.

When plywood is embossed, such high pressures are used that the plywood is crushed to about one-half its original volume.

VALIDITY TEST FOR NEW LAW

Smith-Connolly Law To Be Tested In Mine Trial At Pittsburgh

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30. — The first phase of a protracted court battle to determine the validity of the Smith-Connolly law begins today when 27 United Mine Workers plead "no defense" to charges of fomenting strikes at government-seized soft coal mines.

The men, acting upon advice of counsel, are to appear before Federal Judge P. P. Schoonmaker and enter pleas of nolo contendere, thus eliminating the necessity of a six to seven-week jury trial which was originally scheduled to start Wednesday.

Three additional miners, among the 30 in all indicted by a special federal grand jury last month for allegedly picketing and conspiring to bring about wartime work stoppages in Fayette and Washington similar pleas but injuries suffered in a recent mine accident kept them in a Uniontown hospital.

The 27 defendants, by their action, are subjecting themselves to possible one-year prison terms and fines ranging up to $5,000.

Last week, Harry A. Estep, counsel for the miners, disclosed his clients had agreed to plead guilty, in effect, to instigating the wave of "wildcat" strikes in the Brownsville-Caledonia, Pa., area between June 23 and July 13 in order that the constitutionality of the controversial anti-strike law may get a swift test before the United States supreme court.

It was the plan of defense attorneys to institute a prompt appeal to whatever sentence Judge Schoonmaker imposes upon the contingent of coal diggers.

Legion Sessions Most Orderly

(International News Service)
CHICAGO, Aug. 30. — Not that the "old boys" attending the Illinois convention of the American Legion have lost their zip, but this year's meeting which ended today probably was the most orderly ever held.

The special police and court set-up, established when the legionnaires' antics sometimes bordered on the riotous, had comparatively little work to do. Approximately 1,500 policemen, all Legionnaires themselves, maintained order without conspicuous difficulty.

The so-called "jail" improvised near legion headquarters had few tenants.

Resurfacing here will get under way either Tuesday or Wednesday, according to James Gibson, director of streets and public improvements. He stated Contractor Roy Furman, Waynesburg, would probably begin operations in Cascade street, shift to Sampson street and then possibly move into East street. The Cascade and Sampson street stretches are small.

POLICEMEN SEEKING POLITICAL OFFICE FACE DISMISSAL

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30. — Policemen seeking political office in boroughs and townships where civil service commissions are functioning are liable to dismissal by municipal authorities.

Allegheny county elections director David Olum ruled that the civil service act of 1941 provides that members of a police force "engaging in or conducting a political campaign" are subject to instant removal.

Olum emphasized that the law doesn't make it mandatory to dismiss policemen running for office, but it does furnish a borough council or township commission with sufficient reason for getting rid of a police officer if it so desires.

Yanks Near Title, Series Mark; 'Canes In Camp

New Yorkers Trip Boston Sox Twice; Bucs-Cubs Divide

Yanks Equal Series Won In One Season Mark By Copping Today

CARDS-CINCY SPLIT; YORK HITS 29th, 30th

By JOHN CASHMAN
(International News Service Writer)
NEW YORK, Aug. 30.—The stage is set in Yankee Stadium today to put the league-leading Yanks in the position of being able to equal, or break, one of baseball's most cherished records—that of series won in one season.

Yesterday, the Yanks pummeled the Boston Red Sox in both ends of a twin bill, 6 to 4 and 5 to 1, before 38,320 fans, thus creeping to within striking distance of the series mark. The Yankees have today to whip the Red Sox in today's single game in order to be just one winning series behind the record of 14 straight set by the New York Giants of 1912.

Homers Decide Issue
A home run barrage, climaxed by Roy Weatherly's two-run circuit clout brought the first game victory with one out in the tenth inning. Charley Keller walloped two homers in this contest, to bring his total to 24 for the season.

The nightcap was a cinch for Spurgeon (Spud) Chandler. The right-hander, notching his 17th victory and fifth in a row, checked the Red Sox with five hits.

The Washington Senators meanwhile, consolidated their position in second place by twice walloping the Philadelphia Athletics, 5 to 4 in 11 innings, and 2 to 1. In the opener, the Senators overcame the two-run lead in the final frame, and in the nightcap, erased a one-run advantage held by the A's.

York Whales Two
It was murder in St. Louis as the Browns bowed to the Detroit Tigers, 15 to 5 and 4 to 2. While Virgil Trucks accounted for his 13th triumph in the opener, three Brownies' moundsmen were tapped for 17 hits. In the nightcap, Tommy Bridges won his 12th game, not by his arm alone, but with a ninth inning double. Rudy York was at it again, scoring a homer in each game to bring his 1943 total to 30, seventeen of which came in August.

The Cleveland Indians moved into undisputed possession of third place as they tripped the Chicago White Sox, 2 to 1 and 6 to 1. The Cleveland outfielders actually could have laid out the first game, since every pitcher behind the five-hit performance of Mel Harder was made in the infield. Jeff Heath helped Allie Reynolds to triumph in the nightcap with his 18th home run.

While the Brooklyn Dodgers were hammering out 11 runs in both ends of their doubleheader with the Phillies, the hapless Philadelphiaans collected one lone tally, the scores being 3 to 1 and 8 to 0. Ed Head twirled the Dodgers to victory in the nightcap after Whit Wyatt won the opener. Brooklyn collected 21 hits, the Phillies twelve.

Baseball Summaries
Tip Sewell was showering briskly in the ninth inning of the Chicago Cubs' first game victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates. He was sent to the needle spray after being pounded in a seven-run last inning rally that brought a Cubs' 11 to 2 triumph. The Pirates avenged Sewell's sixth defeat by taking the nightcap, 3 to 1, by putting three hits together in the fifth inning for three runs.

The St. Louis Cardinals dropped the opening half of a double-bill to the Cincinnati Reds, 5 to 3, then won the nightcap, 3 to 2. The Reds' victory in the first game had given them 11 straight wins and moved them to within 9½ games of the league-leading Cardinals. They came close to shoving the lead down still more as they put up a spirited last-inning battle in the last frame of the nightcap.

The Boston Braves walloped the New York Giants in both ends of a twin bill, 4 to 1 and 1 to 0. Jim Tobin held the Giants to eight hits in the opening victory, and although each team came up with just five hits in the night-cap, Al Javery emerged the victor.

When will it end? Ask shipyard and factory workers. It will end when we have the overwhelming weight of machines to crush the enemy.

Henry Finishes With Big Money

Now He Can Go Back To Coast; Gate Dissappoints Mike Jacobs

By DAVID J. WALSH
INS Sports Writer
CHICAGO, Aug. 30.—It has been finally concluded that the man whose abused and disordered features have now taken on the mildly rueful look of a Denver sandwich, and whose quivering legs are so stiff they might be a pair of stilts, had served his purpose. The pious endeavor to get professional boxing, so having won no rounds out of a possible 10 with Ray Robinson at Madison Square Garden, Henry Armstrong announced his second or semi-final retirement from the ring.

The announcement came soon after it was discovered that there was only $60,789 in the house on a show callously scaled at $2.20 to $16.50. Yes, Armstrong can go back to Central avenue in Los Angeles now.

Big Money Finish
He's finished, finally and forever with the big money. And in the case of the short money Mike Jacobs just wouldn't be interested. He has found, to his dismay, that even a town full of people like New York no longer will go for the doddering Armstrong at the prices Marmaduke is accustomed to exacting. Another thing he has found is that maybe after all it doesn't pay to put the stiff on a crusading columnist.

It wasn't so long ago, anyhow, that Dan Parker was coming there freely, as is his wont about the $115.00 top being charged for Angot and Beau Jack. Mr. Parker's outcries becoming so audible that one of the rival managers took alarm. "Ah don't pay no attention to him," said Mike, shortly. "He ain't got to buy no tickets."

But somebody must have paid attention to him Friday night. Anyhow, Parker devoted his column the day before the fight to a tirade, warning the fatheads off the $16.50 price. And the record clearly shows that Mike must have wound up masticating his ring-side tickets.

It might as well be told now, however, that Chicago was next on the sucker list.

Chicago Bout Off
Having just gone for a $45,000 swoon by losing to the Bloey Nova, Henry was to be given Armstrong next. If Henry had been able to draw anything more than caricatures, but he couldn't, and didn't, and so we assume that Jack Hurley reluctantly abandoned his glorious project, which approximately was to bring Armstrong here possibly in an iron lung to meet John Bananans, the well known box boy.

On account of the local antics of Looey the Bloey, however, the feeling in official circles here is to let New York have its monopoly on these comical enterprises, if at all possible. But don't get us wrong. We love boxing.

Ramblings Sports

Monday's quick wash:—

Today's column opener has its points, a lot of 'em. It regards Faculty Manager Ralph H. Gardner, whose knowledge of the unknown quantities "X", lines, angles, arcs, quadrangles, surfaces, solids and the rest of the math family is undoubted. At Muddy Creek Falls a few weeks back, although while swimming and watching the leaves nodding, RHG started thinking about football.

He commenced looking forward to the one-week stay of the football prospects, coaches and a few guests, that is until his thoughts drifted to the food situation. As faculty manager, it's his responsibility to set up 11 meals for 50-odd mouths. In these days of point rationing, that's a problem that would cause the mighty Einstein to pull his grey strings in anger.

Well, there's always a chance that the point disher outers would hand out the necessary blues and reds, in a case of this kind, Gardner reasoned as he patted his shiny top. He did visit the stamp dispensers, and did get points, but hardly enough to provide for the 50-odd males whose capacity for food is prodigious, a polite way of stating that the lads eat like lumberjacks.

One night, while jostling with "X" equals this and "Z" does this, Gardner found the solution under the last "X" on the right, under a sheet of paper. The problem, at least so far as I'm concerned, anyhow, while swimming at Muddy Creek Falls a few weeks back, RHG started thinking about football.

In case you missed the item, Harold Burry, Ellwood City junior high coach for the past seven years, has been named Grover C. Washabaugh's assistant at Westminster. Johnny Eagleson, ex-New Wilmington high mentor, has left to wrestle new chores as cage coach and assistant grid boss at Oakmont high, nearby Pittsburgh.

Three well known localities in service, Nickie Gennock, of the U. S. Coast Guard, Corporal "Cash" Koszela, ex-Cane cage master, and Marion Sniezek, talented basketballer, are home on furloughs. Gennock is stationed in Baltimore while Koszela and Sniezek are at Camp Forrest, Tennessee. Ne-Ca-Hi's ticket sale starts tomorrow morning in the Sporting Goods Store.

Up until Friday night, Frank Liposky, the fancy United Engineering softball twirler, boasted of 33 straight wins. "Cannonball" Bishara wrecked the mark, whipping the Ellwood City 4-3. Miss Margaret Fischer, the enthusiastic Ne-Ca-Hi teacher, would appreciate a mention about the GAC booklet covering Cane grid activities since 1898. The organization lacks pictures of the '98, '99, 1900, '01, '02, '06, '07, '10, '11 and '31 teams. If you have any of these photos, how's about calling this desk?

Dean Park Wins Title Easy Way

Cozy Corner Team Walks Off Field After Decision Of Umpire

Dean Park Dodgers won the championship of the American Legion league for the second consecutive year, but they won it the easy way, when Cozy Corners walked off the field in the sixth inning after the decision of base umpire McCann went against them on J. Ziegler's two-base lick to right field. McCann called Ziegler out for failing to touch first base as he rounded the sack and went to second.

After holding Dean Park to a scoreless tie on Friday evening, the Wolverines simply fell apart in the first two innings of the first game, when Dean Park scored 11 runs, and went on to win by a score of 15-6.

The Dodgers were playing a double header to wind up the season's play in the American Legion league, the games being played at Marshall field.

In the first contest, they scored 15 runs on 11 bases on balls, six errors and eight hits, the Wolverines using three hurlers to "try and stem the tide, while Vargo was steady all the way.

In the second game, Campbell pitched steadily ball, particularly with men on bases, while Donegan was given rather ragged support. Score by innings:
Dean Park 560 030 1-15 3 7
Wolverines 101 004 0- 6 6 3
Batteries: Dean Park, Vargo and H. Liebenforder; Wolverines, McCann, Ciccone, Fletcher, and Motzko and Mills.

Cozy Corners 110 111 4-6 4
Dean Park 023 033-8 7 1
Batteries: Dean Park, Campbell and H. Liebenforder; Cozy Corners, Donegan and Zarrone.

Ellwood Boxing Show On Tuesday Benefits Hospital

Lions Dapper Dans To Stage Double Feature On Lincoln High Field

(Special To The News)
ELLWOOD CITY, Aug. 30.—With high hopes of raising a chunky sum for the new Ellwood City Emergency hospital, the Lions Club-Dapper Dans are all set for their gigantic double feature—a 7-bout boxing card and an outdoor stage show—Tuesday night on Lincoln high field.

The vaudeville end of the twin bill begins at 7:15 o'clock while the sons of the Leatherfist Valley start swinging at 8:30 o'clock. All proceeds will be used to help equip the new emergency hospital.

High Class Show
The committee has secured the services of some of the most talented vaudevillians in the district. Billy True, the Ellwood City war worker, will unleash his "one man sax section" act. Billy has played at Radio City, Greenwich Village and a number of other nationally known spots.

Colonel Thompson Post band will be another attraction. Other entertainers include Cora, Belle Johnson, local baton dancer, and Emil Lelanko, New Castle's famous impersonator and comedians. This comprises only part of the cast.

The fistic end of the bill will highlight the occasion. Classy mitt slingers from Ohio, West Virginia, and Pennsylvania will dot the card.

Here's The Lineup
Lou King, of Freedom, who holds the Senior A. M. A. light heavy title, faces "Chuck" Patersnack, of Wheeling.

Vern Nulph, now residing in the county flings with Art Miller, of Warren, Ohio.

Iron Man Johnny Toth battles Fern Atkins, of Youngstown. Ellwood's Roy Crews is paired with Tom Croley, of Fall River, Massachusetts, at 155.

Harry Bonar, of West Virginia, runs against Burl Charity, Youngstown specialist.

Meryl Coffey, of Charlestown, has been booked to mix with Ray Nulph. The committee includes: Marty Kovack, general chairman; Michael Edelman, vice chairman; Jake Belloff, Joe Latino, ticket committee; R. J. Schill, Pax Pike and Mike Edelman committee on arrangements for the vaudeville show; Robert Charity, charge of field proceedings and Mel Guy treasurer.

SPRINGFIELD UNBEATEN IN LEGION TOURNEY

(International News Service)
MILES CITY, Mont., Aug. 30.—Springfield, O., today was the only American Legion Junior baseball contender remaining unbeaten in the 1943 kids "warrior series" currently being staged in Miles City with the national title at stake.

The Springfield nine upset the favored New Orleans, La., Jax last night, 4 to 3, after the Jax whacked Minneapolis, Minn., 7 to 4, in an afternoon contest.

All three teams remain in the series, however, inasmuch as the playoffs is a double elimination affair and neither New Orleans nor Minneapolis has been defeated twice.

NABS HONOR AGAIN
For the second consecutive season, Manager Hal Gruber of the Bristol Twins of the Appalachian league has been accorded dual honors on the circuit's annual all-star team. Usually it is enough when a fellow makes the team, but Gruber has made it in two capacities for two years. He has been named to play shortstop on the mythical nine and also to manage it. When a fellow can grab two posies like that in consecutive years he must have something on the ball.

DAVE GENKINGER ENLISTS IN NAVY

David M. Genkinger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert J. Genkinger, of 519 East Garfield avenue, was accepted by the U. S. Navy at Pittsburgh Saturday and has been sent to the Great Lakes Naval Training Station to begin his training. Dave, as will be remembered, was star center on New Castle's championship New Castle High grid team last fall, and will probably get into a lot of action with the Great Lakes team. His father is manager of the New Castle Credit Exchange.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

Ted Ray, famous golf professional of England, died Saturday at the age of 66. Horse patrons are getting ready to witness the paces and trots at Stoneboro. Bntler hopes to net more than $3,600 from a benefit boxing show for Deshon Army hospital is held September 10.

Henry Armstrong, one of the best fighters who has trod a ring, has retired, having been beaten by Sugar Robinson in New York. Fritzie Zivic would not be averse to battling Billy Montgomery in a Pittsburgh ring. Montgomery beat him in Philadelphia.

Shenango Personnel Replacement depot will have a basketball team and will play on a home-and-abroad basis, according to Lt. John Beriman, post athletic officer, Shenango. Johnny Vander Meer, Reds' hurler, has been turned down by the army, but the Reds' third sacker, Bert Haas, was accepted.

Cornell's Football Schedule Revised

(International News Service)
ITHACA, N. Y., Aug. 30.—Cornell announced today a revised 1943 football schedule of 10 games. Addition of a game with Sampson Naval Training Station in Ithaca September 25, makes the schedule the longest Cornell has played since 1917. Robert J. Kane, acting director of athletics said the game scheduled with Colgate on October 23 might be played in Syracuse rather than Ithaca.

The revised schedule: Bucknell, September 18; Sampson, September 25; Navy at Baltimore, October 2; Princeton at Princeton, October 9; Holy Cross, October 16; Colgate, October 23; Columbia, October 30; Penn State, November 6; Dartmouth at Boston, November 13; Pennsylvania at Philadelphia, November 25.

Doris Hart Grabs Tennis Title Again

(International News Service)
PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 30.—Miss Doris Hart, of Miami, Fla., today began her second consecutive year as national junior girls tennis champion.

Miss Hart won the title at the Philadelphia Cricket Club by trimming Dorothy Head, of Alameda, Calif., 6-3, 6-3, in the finals of the 26th annual tournament. Combining talents with Shirley Fry, of Akron, O., Miss Hart also shares the crown for the doubles. The two young stars defeated Betty Rosenquist, of South Orange, N. J., and Lillian Lopaus, of New York, 6-4, 10-8.

Terry McGovern Joins Sea Forces

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH, Aug. 30.—He did his bit with the land forces in the first war but he's going to help out Uncle Sam on the sea this time.

That, in brief, is the story of Charles J. "Terry" McGovern, 49-year-old ex-Pittsburgh district hockey star, who leaves for Poughkeepsie, N. Y., September 14 for training as an officer in the Maritime service.

In the first show, McGovern was thrice wounded, once being left for dead on a French battlefield.

DIX SMAX JINN
Dixie Walker's home run jinx lived exactly 2 years. Killing it was one of the big thrills for Dix in Brooklyn's western trip.

May 28, 1941, Dix hit a homer in Philadelphia. May 28, 1943, he connected for the circuit in Pittsburgh. In the solid 2 years intervening he couldn't collect a 4-bagger anywhere in the National League except within the confines of Greater New York. All his homers were either at his home Ebbets field or over the river at the Polo Grounds.

STILL TOGETHER
Cassius Siler, Barborton, O., and Oliver Pollock, Wilmerding, Pa., played football and roomed together at Western Reserve. Now, the two are Navy V-12 trainees at Penn State and are seeking berths on the Nittany Lion football team. Both are backs.

Squad Undergoes Opening Workout During Morning; 40 Boys In Camp

PROSPECTS BRIGHT, BRIDENBAUGH SAYS

Wasting no time whatsoever after reaching Muddy Creek Falls this morning, New Castle's high's 1943 football contingent sped through a brisk workout and this afternoon is marking up the second drill of the week-long camp maneuvers. Hardened by last week's Taggart stadium sessions, the athletes are all set for the strenuous program ahead. Most of the piskin catchers dashed through the opening practice impressively, showing no signs of fatigue.

Coach Phil H. Bridenbaugh, after setting out for the Grant City den, said that he planned a two-day program with "hard work the keynote of the drills."

Squad Well-Balanced
Regarding the material, Bridenbaugh asserted that "the squad is well-balanced, with weight being rather predominant. Speed is noticeable too." The 40-man squad includes about 20 members of last year's Class A WPIAL championship squad. Several of last year's junior high stars make up some

First Graders Will Be Enrolled Friday

Children entering school for the first time this fall will be registered before the start of the school term, it was announced today by Superintendent Frank L. Burton.

"In order to avoid the confusion and delay that develop the first day of school in enrolling many pupils in the first grade," Mr. Burton stated, "Highland and McGill schools will be open Friday, Sept. 3, from 1 to 4 p. m. for parents to bring their children who will enter grade one this fall.

"Parents should bring birth certificates and vaccination certificates. Beginning pupils must be six years old before Feb. 1, 1944, or they cannot be admitted this school year."
